Human Be-In: Allen Ginsberg, Timothy Leary at Polo Grounds, Golden Gate Park

Notes: The 'Human Be-In,' a named coined by Michael Bowen for the event, which was held in Golden Gate Park, in the polo grounds. This poster was designed by Stanley Mouse and Michael Bowen, and printed at the Bindweed Press in San Francisco. The poster announced "A Gathering of the Tribes for a Human Be-In." This is considered, along with the Trips Festival, one of the key events of the era, an event that brought both the Beat element and the emerging Hippies together, sharing their cultures. The event was fashioned after the Hindu Festival Kumbha Mela, a non-sectarian religious festival held in India every 12 years. The Human Be-In was to be an American version of this kind of spiritual event.

The event was co-organized by Allen Cohen, the publisher of the San Francisco Oracle, and he featured the event on the cover of his publication. In attendance were all the high lords of psychedelia, including Baba Ram Das, Timothy Leary, Allen Ginsberg, Gary Snyder, and radicals Dick Gregory and Jerry Rubin, along with the Grateful Dead, Quicksilver Messenger Service, and many others - a true meeting of the minds. Radicals/Beats, Mind Trippers, and Hippies, all merging in a single event.

This is considered to be one of the high-water marks in the history of psychedelic posters. This poster is considered essential to any comprehensive collection of the posters of this era. It is very difficult to find. There were 500 originals printed.

Bill Ham at Golden Gate Park - San Francisco, CA

Notes: Bill Ham Light Show & Rock Art Ball, 94

Bruce Dauser introduced me to Bill Ham. Bill was one of the pioneers of the psychedelic light show in San Francisco during the mid-sixties. He looked the part, with his long white flowing beard and hair. He lived in one of a row of tall old Victorian houses on Pine Street. The first time I visited his house, I looked up as I walked up the steep stairs in front, and noticed the house where I lived back in '67 was right next-door, and spotted a window I had painted with a psychedelic pattern! It had survived 27 years! I looked through that house, since it was empty and owned by Jamie, Bill's landlord, but none of my murals or any other evidence of my stay was left.

Jamie was remodeling the house and just about to replace the window, so he gave it to me. I was able to photograph it later, before it accidentally shattered in my garage. Bill's house was a classic artist's pad, paint spattered here and there from his abstract expressionist tempura on paper paintings. He also created figures with wire and colored rags in various animated poses. Downstairs, he had a studio for his lightshow inventions and equipment. He had made an infinity type light machine out of a large box with frosted glass on the front panel. He wouldn't let us look inside, but when he turned it on, some kind of apparatus would move around and cast colored light shapes on the glass. It was very effective. Bill asked me to create a poster for his light show and concert, Rock Art Ball, which would be after the show during the evenings of Wes Wilson's October '94 Rock Art Expo, at the Hall of Flowers. Bill came down to Santa Cruz and we stayed up all night working on it with my computer and slides of his lightshow works. Bill said "I'll just suggest stuff, and you can do it if you want!"

Notes: A poster, beautifully printed by Dauser Press, for the 30th Anniversary open-air concert commemorating the famous 1967 outdoor hippie gathering. The "Summer of Love" lettering in the shape of a heart, at the center of this poster, is the logo I designed for this event that appeared on all the advertising, a variety of products and memorabilia, as well as the posters by other artists. The celebration took place in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco.
