

DARK OF THE MOON

November 4, 2010

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

This is about a day and one half until the New Moon, the days of closing and drawing in. In Europe they used to call the three days before the New Moon, the "Devil's Days" and in Tibet these days are called the Dharma Protectors days, because you prayed to the protectors of the dharma (and yourself) on those days. The dark of the Moon. We wait for the New Moon.
