

TO EVERYONE: HAPPY NEW YEARS EVE
December 31, 2010

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

I hope you all have fun tonight. Now my idea of fun is going to bed early and sleeping, but I will be up at 2 or 3 AM like I always am. Remember: I am old now.

Please have the most fun evening and be safe. May the New Year bring joy and happiness to all beings in the ten directions. May it be a prosperous and wonderful year for us all.

Photo: Taken in our kitchen a few minutes ago. Outside it is cold and wintery. May this little flower by its beauty bring you the same.

Love to all,

Michael
