

VISITOR
November 27, 2010

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

Don't imagine for a moment that this young female husky will give anyone a moment of rest. Half cat and the other half curious imp, Lucah (as she answers to) is my daughter Michael Anne's dog. She used to live here and is glad to see us, but now she is only visiting for the weekend. Lucah has a mind of her own and she likes it that way.
