

MAY ERLEWINE CD-RELEASE PARTY
October 28, 2011

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

I can't help but be a proud father whenever one of my four kids does something great. My daughter May and her husband Seth travelled to Ethiopia this year to help raise money to build schools for Ethiopian children who really need them. They met with and entertained thousands of kids with their music and one of the things that came out of it is a new CD of music inspired by that trip. Called "New Flower," it is being released this week and for the next few weeks there will be CD release shows (and parties) all over Michigan. Below find a list of some of the gigs where they will be playing. I hope to be at some of them so if you live near, drop by and hear this great music and say hello to me too.

Here is some info on May and Seth plus photos and a list of their albums here:

Listen to cuts from the new album. I like "Don't Forget," "What Makes You Alive" and "New Flower." Give it a listen.
