Obstruction: Joint Communique issued by Communication Co. and Oracle at Avalon Ballroom

Notes: Not a Family Dog concert, but a local clean up party, but has the Family Dog logo in upper-left-hand corner. the text reads:

OBSTRUCTION

The Health Department invasion has begun... Obstruction. Overcoming is our communal task... Onward... Participation is the means to dispersion of obstruction... There are Clementin Limited dry trash boxes at these locations: Frederick & Ashbury, 1535 Haight, 1755 Haight, Frederick & Clayton, Page & Clayton; Cole & Page, and Schrader & Waller. These boxes are for dry refuge [sic]...wood, metal, paper, tin cans... Thursday afternoon, Sunset Scavengers will tour the Haight-Ashbury to remove damp garbage (vegetable matter, etc.)...watch the street for further communications on what to do.

Let's Do It!

AOXOMOXOA: Grateful Dead, Sons of Champlin at Avalon Ballroom - San Francisco, CA

Notes: AOXOMOXOA

By Michael Erlewine

If there is one artist who put the psychedelic in the psychedelic era, in my opinion that artist is Rick Griffin. And if there is a single poster of Griffin's that best sums up his psychedelic statement, it has to be this one, which has been nicknamed the "AOXOMOXOA." Griffin's flying eyeball (BG-105) may be the most universally recognized of all the psychedelic era posters, but the AOXOMOXOA most perfectly represents what that era was all about.

The word "AOXOMOXOA," is a double palindrome, meaning not only does it read the same forward and backward, but also each letter in the word is also reversible, and when flipped horizontally also reads the same either way. As the story goes, "AOXOMOXOA," was an idea given to Rick Griffin by Grateful Dead lyricist Robert Hunter, when Griffin phoned him up and asked him for a possible title for the new Grateful Dead album cover Griffin was working on. Hunter suggested that he put a lot of the palindromes that Griffin had been playing with (words like 'mom,' etc.,) together to form a larger word.

Dead Heads have speculated as to the possible meaning of the word, with thoughts like the "AO" means "Alpha and Omega," the sacred seed syllable "OM" is in the center, "X" is a mysterious number to be solved for, and so on. Others have speculated that this is an Aztec or Mayan word. Beyond the word is the actual imagery created by Rick Griffin.

Griffin's incredible sun (an egg surrounded by sperm wriggling to get in), burning in a clear blue sky, endlessly radiating light and warmth above, warming the earth below, where the most dark womb of the earth receives that light and (also endlessly) brings forth life. Here is the mystery of life and death drawn out in psychedelic imagery worthy of Carlos Castaneda and the mysterious world of Don Juan. This poster has an immediate and a lasting impact on our consciousness. For me, it is unique in the world of psychedelic posters and is the single most important graphic from that era.

And if these incredible graphics don't speak for themselves, Griffin thought to literally spell it out for us in the very type on the poster itself, the name: Grateful Dead. If you cover the lower two-thirds portion of the name "Grateful Dead," the very top third spells out for all of us the very truth of that time, the very essence of the psychedelic experience. It clearly says "We Ate The Acid," and that says it all. We ate the acid and it changed our life and set the tone for a generation.

Complete Family Dog Series (all originals: handbills, and cards)
$27,000

Notes: A Brief Introduction to the Family Dog and Bill Graham Series

Family Dog Complete Original Handbills and Cards $27,000

Email info@ClassicPosters.com, if interested in this set.

The Family Dog handbills run from #1 to #41. The family Dog postcards begin with #42 and run parallel (with the posters) to the end at #147, and include the Denver cards, except that no FD-D-09 card was ever printed. There are 147 posters, 41 handbills, and 106 cards in this complete set. The vast majority of these handbills and cards are in Near Mint condition. This set has been stored flat in archival grade boxes, interleaved with neutral-PH paper. There are very few sets in the world in this condition and none on the market that we know of now or in recent history.

Not included in this sale, but for the record, the Family Dog posters begin with number 1 and continue to number 147, and include the 13 Denver posters, which do not have numbers in the 1-147 sequence; 79, 82, and 84.

The History

Between the years 1966 and 1971, a number of promoters produced weekly psychedelic rock concerts in San Francisco. Foremost among these were the Family Dog Presents (Avalon Ballroom) and the Bill Graham Presents (Fillmore Auditorium). Together they produced over 440 concerts, each of which was advertised by a sequentially numbered image, which was printed in both large (poster) size and small (postcard or handbill size). Altogether some 70 graphic artists were involved, many of them now almost legendary. Virtually every famous rock star of the time appeared on these posters, handbills and postcards, and these images have become renowned throughout the world as the best example of psychedelic rock-concert poster art.

Individual items from these series appear in numerous museums and are sought after by collectors the world over. The few existing complete sets of original printings, which are less than thirty and probably fewer than 25 such, are among the great collections in modern graphic art. One of these sets is in the possession of the Rock n' Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland, Ohio, and others are expected to be purchased by museums in the future. But today, most sets are still in the possession of private investors.

Because of the rarity of certain images (press runs of early items were 1,000 or less), it is extremely unlikely there will ever be more than a handful of additional complete sets, which took those collectors or their agents hundreds, if not thousands of hours (years of work) to complete. Over the years, these sets have performed extremely well as investments, and although it is impossible to predict the future, they are expected to continue to do so.

The following sets are hereby offered for sale. And they are not hastily assembled collections. Not only are these all originals, but both of these sets were collected and authenticated by Eric King, perhaps the most distinguished expert in these series and author of the definitive work on these posters, 'The Collector's Guide to Psychedelic Rock Concert Posters, Postcards, and Handbills 1965-1973.' These were personal collections of Mr. King and a letter of authenticity accompanies each set. King estimates that these sets are in the top 10 best sets for these items.

Each of these sets contains only original-issue handbills, and postcards and each set comprises what Eric authenticates as all of the items to constitute a complete set. There are no 2nd printings, reprints, and so forth, but only the original posters. Many of these posters were signed by the artists themselves, which further increases their value. The authentication of these sets comes from Eric King and follows the guidelines laid down in his book.
